talking about them!

It's so cold outside.
I keep wanting the snow to turn red.
It would mean I could prove that I was bleeding.

My face...
Bone thin...
How? I'm always hungry.

I touch my head.
I can't feel anything.
I feel grate.

IT STORY

One had not removed the raw, but gave itself examination to hold pain felt.
I did wrong and I didn't mean it.
I couldn't stand my own feet, the noise was loud.
All doubt of maintaining the path.
At anything, since you've gone.
The one who followed was a husk... might still be...
I wish I was alive again. No excuses.

Why ~~the~~ ^{cont. one?} ~~deblock of~~ ^{conditions of this story?} ~~was?~~ ~~??~~
My hands can still serve for good whilst my heart and head collapse and fall with pain.
The corporal action can still make a difference in the cycle and world.
With butterfly wings, the inside of yours... in the best way possible.
Writes so good.
Why is it ~~an~~ ^{an} ~~abrupt~~ ^{abrupt} I hope I can one day live in and enjoy again?
Wouldn't start want that for me?
Even ~~start~~ ^{start} ~~everything?~~ ^{everything?}

Or, am I guilty and sentenced!

How to read:

Surround yourself with all you use to call yourself "you".
I'll share mine.

Read mine, records, memories.

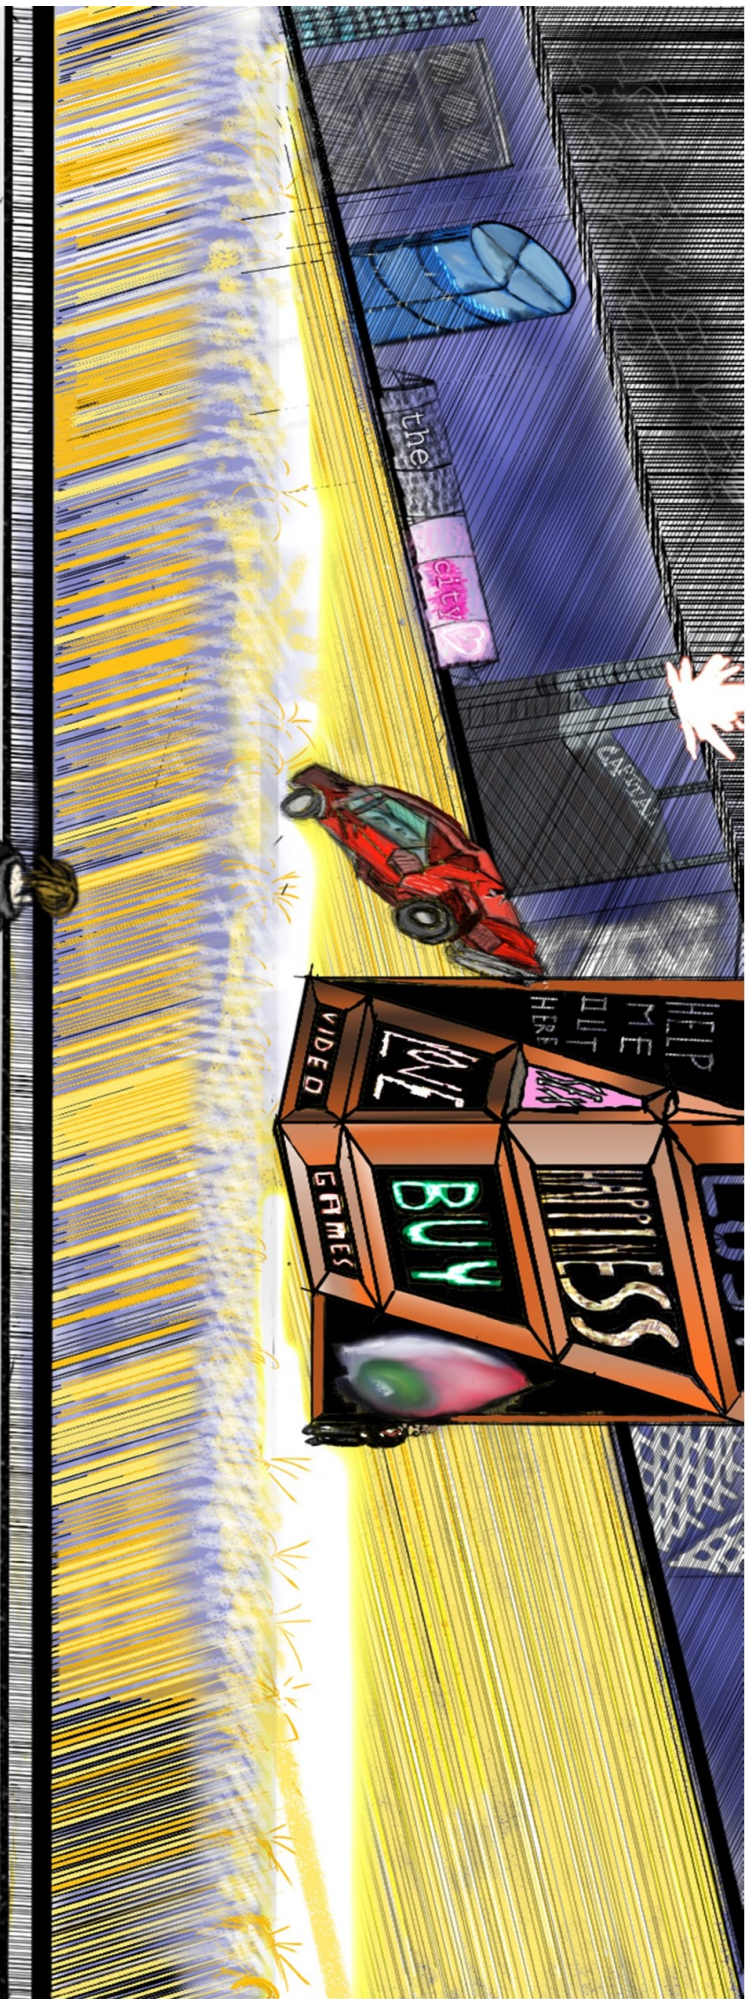

Key to lock and synonyms.

Make sure you're being honest now.
Your vices are there too.

I never had to write these directions.
And, you are still following them.

Blast those records loud now!
